

MARION HAMILTON was introduced to the magic of SCD by Georgina Findlay in her Saturday morning class in Weston, Ontario, as a young teenager. She lost dancing for a time, as life moved along, but found it again in 2007. She loved the beautiful Celtic music, the wonderful teamwork required to accomplish formations in a dance and the energetic interesting people she met. Her husband, Michael, soon joined the dance and they began dancing even when they were traveling in places like Portugal, England, Mexico and the United States. Her love of teaching drew her to the journey of accreditation in 2010. She earned her certification in 2013 in Toronto. Many thanks to Pat Coyle, Jean Noble, Fred Moyes, Don Bartlett and many "stooges" and friends who helped enable this goal to come to fruition! Marion lived and taught in the Niagara Region until 2015 at which time she moved to Ottawa to be closer to family and her cottage life. She now dances and teaches in Ottawa and loves sharing the joy of Scottish Country Dancing.
